

TROPICAL WEATHER UPDATE

August 17, 2007, 1:00 p.m.

Royal Caribbean International®, Celebrity Cruises® and Azamara CruisesSM continue to closely monitor the path and progress of Hurricane Dean to ensure our guests enjoy safe and comfortable cruises, and to make certain our ships steer clear of the storm.

Our foremost concern is the safety of our guests and crew members.

Given Hurricane Dean's location and projected path, Royal Caribbean is currently altering the itineraries of two ships and providing guidance regarding a third ship. Celebrity Cruises® and Azamara CruisesSM are not currently altering the itineraries of any ships – as they currently have no ships sailing in the Caribbean.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN INTERNATIONAL®

Ships sailing from Port Everglades

Enchantment of the Seas® will depart from Port Everglades Saturday, August 18, as scheduled. The ship will sail a modified itinerary with port calls in Labadee®, Haiti, Monday; and Nassau, Bahamas, Wednesday; before returning to Port Everglades as scheduled on Thursday.

Ships sailing from the Port of Galveston

Rhapsody of the Seas® will depart from the Port of Galveston Sunday, August 19, as scheduled. The ship will sail a modified itinerary with port calls in Key West, Florida, Tuesday; Georgetown, Cayman Islands, Thursday; and Cozumel, Mexico, Friday; before returning to the Port of Galveston as scheduled on Sunday. The ship's itinerary is subject to change based on possible storm-related damage to the Cayman Islands and Mexico. Should the aftermath of Hurricane Dean prevent the ship from visiting these locations, alternative ports of call would be sought.

Ships sailing from the Port of Miami

Freedom of the Seas® will depart from the Port of Miami Sunday, August 19, as scheduled. The ship is currently expected to sail its scheduled itinerary. The ship's itinerary is subject to change based on possible storm-related damage to Jamaica, the Cayman Islands and Mexico. Should the aftermath of Hurricane Dean prevent the ship from visiting these locations, alternative ports of call would be sought.

As weather conditions involving the storm are constantly changing, guests booked on these sailings are asked to continue monitoring these updates to receive the latest information. Guests also may contact Royal Caribbean at 1-800-327-6700 to receive these updates.

CELEBRITY CRUISES® AND AZAMARA CRUISESSM

Celebrity Cruises® and Azamara CruisesSM are not currently altering the itineraries of any ships, as they have no ships in the Caribbean at this time.

At this time, no other Royal Caribbean International®, Celebrity Cruises® and Azamara CruisesSM ships are being adversely impacted by tropical weather. We will continue to closely monitor weather conditions and update this information at 1 p.m. Saturday.

For up to date information visit www.cruisingpower.com