Physical debit or credit cards are not accepted onboard.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Which travel documents are required to board a Royal Caribbean[®] cruise?

The specific travel documents required to board a Royal Caribbean cruise depend on your nationality, citizenship, and cruise itinerary.

All guests must present physical valid travel documents based on the criteria for their sailing. Guests who arrive without appropriate documentation may be denied boarding.

For a complete list of accepted travel documents for your sailing, please visit the Royal Caribbean Travel Documents Hub.

2. Where can I find more information about my Royal Caribbean® cruise reservation?

After booking your Royal Caribbean cruise, you can access your reservation details on the Royal Caribbean website or in the Royal Caribbean app.

To view your cruise information:

- Enter your reservation number, last name and ship name online or in the app
- Your reservation number can be found in your booking confirmation email
- Download the Royal Caribbean app from the App Store or Google Play

Once logged in, you can explore onboard activities, theme nights and entertainment by opening the Calendar and selecting “Explore Activities by Day”.
